

Short Takes

Volunteers needed to help with Box Tops

The CUBS of group is looking for volunteers to help count and package Box Tops for submission. The group will be meeting from 9 to 11 a.m. Oct. 9. Volunteers are asked to bring a pair of scissors to the school and check in at the office.

"Yield a Cure" with Horizon Equipment

Throughout the months of September and October, "Yield A Cure" shirts may be ordered at any Horizon Equipment location. All proceeds will go towards the Susan G. Komen Foundation to support breast cancer research and awareness. Ask a Horizon Equipment representative for more information. Shirts are $15.

Creepy Campground program

Harrison County Conservation will host the annual Creepy Campground program at the Willow Lake Recreation Area on Friday, Oct. 10, from 6-8 p.m. Bring the kids to trick-or-treat in the campground at 6 p.m. with a movie and snack in the large shelter at 7 p.m. Campers are encouraged to decorate their sites and hand out candy, but it is not required. Attendees are asked to bring a non-perishable food or personal hygiene item to fill our canoe and paddle away hunger. Donations will be divided between the Harrison County Food Pantry and West Central Community Action. In case of rain, the program will be postponed to the next night, Saturday, Oct. 11, same times.

Trick-or-Treating at Welcome Center Farmers Market Oct. 16th

The Welcome Center Farmers Marketing will be hosting trick-or-treating at the final farmers market of the season Thursday, Oct. 16. Treats will be available for all ages from the vendors and at the counter in the Harrison County Wel-

Lois Lucille (Brown) Hatterman

Lois Lucille (Brown) Hatterman was born July 25, 1919 to John L. and Abbie (Leonard) Brown at their home in Hardscratch. She passed away peacefully in her sleep on October 2, 2014 in Logan, IA. Lois graduated from Logan High School in 1936. She taught in various country schools until she married Louie October 1, 1942. They farmed in Portsmouth until Louie's death in 1977. Lois moved to Logan in 1978. After moving to Logan, she worked at the Harrison County Title and Guaranty for several years.

Lois was a faithful member of the Logan United Methodist Church where she held many church positions. She had been an active member of many clubs - Library, Ringside Country Club, SOS, UMW. She was an active member of the Monday and Thursday exercise group.

Lois was preceded in death by her par-

Funeral services were held Monday, Oct. 6 at the United Methodist Church, Logan. Casket bearers were Jeff Brown, Jake Carlson, Mike Hack, Lynn Sass, Heath Hack, Kent Kersten, Brett Carlson and Scott Bassett.

Final resting place is at the Woodbine Cemetery. Logan Memorial Chapel was in charge of arrangements. Memorials may be made to the Cancer Society or to the Logan United Methodist Church.

Marvin "Bub" Ulmer

Marvin "Bub" Ulmer, 64, died Friday, Sept. 26, 2014 at his home in Platte Center, Neb. He was born Dec. 14, 1949 in Logan to Gerald and Marie (Hansen) Ulmer. He graduated from Woodbine High School in 1968. While in high school he played in a rock and roll band, and in his uncles' band until he left for the service.

Bub served in the U.S. Army in Germany during Vietnam from March 1971 - March 1973. He married Debra Leinen on April 20, 1974. The couple lived in Woodbine and Texas before moving to Columbus in 1989.

Bub worked for B-D Construction for many years and also at the Eagle's Club. He enjoyed being outside, helping his neighbors and spending time with his grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Gerald and Marie Ulmer, and his wife Debra Ulmer.

Survivors include his daughters: Heather (Dave) Beckman of Columbus, Neb.; Amy (Eric) Maschmeier of Ft. Greely, Ark.; Lori (Tim) Kramer of Omaha, Neb.; 11 grandchildren; one sister: Marcia (Tim) Gracey of Des Moines; and nieces and nephews.

A memorial service was held Thursday, Oct. 2, 2014 at McKown Funeral Home, Columbus, Neb. Condolences may be sent to www.mckownfuneralhome.com

Correction

In the Oct. 1 issue of the Woodbine Twiner, a political advertisement was printed that did not state who paid for it. The advertisement was paid for by Harold Bertelsen for Harrison County Supervisor.